Member and Participant Protection Policy

We take very seriously the safety and well-being of our members and participants and, to that end, have established policies and procedures that protect people (and particularly children) utilizing our programs and facilities. The law imposes an affirmative duty on the YMCA and its members and participants to prevent child abuse, bullying or other forms of abusive behavior. Any person having reasonable cause to believe that a child has been subjected to child abuse or acts of child abuse is to report this immediately. Such reports, where possible, shall contain the names and addresses of the child and his parent, guardian, or other person having custody and control of the child and, if known, the child's age, the nature and possible extent of the child's injuries, abuse or maltreatment, including any evidence of previous injuries, abuse or maltreatment, and any other information that the person believes may be helpful with respect to the child abuse and the identity of the perpetrator.

The YMCA reserves the right to deny access or membership to any person. This includes but is not limited to, any person engaged in child abuse or bullying as well as those persons who are known to have been accused or convicted of any crime involving child abuse, sexual abuse or is a registered sex offender. By signing the Raritan Valley YMCA Membership Form you certify that neither you nor anyone on your membership has been accused or convicted of a criminal offense listed above.

All members and participants must recognize that the Raritan Valley YMCA is dedicated to the welfare of all. In order to maintain a consistent and cooperative environment, the Management of the YMCA requests that all members and participants using its facilities refrain from the use of foul language, abusive actions or inappropriate behavior and recognize that good sportsmanship, fair play and a cooperative attitude govern behavior at all times. Rules for participation in a program are the same for everyone without regard to race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability. It is understood that everyone will be treated as individuals and respect shown for reasonable differences in tastes, preferences, abilities, and range of behavior patterns. Respect others as well as the buildings, equipment, and the natural environment. Refrain from smoking, possessing alcoholic beverages, firearms or other weapons and any illegal substances. Adult members should avoid conversations with unrelated minors and refrain from being alone with unrelated minors while using the facility.

The YMCA reserves the right to dismiss someone from the organization whose conduct is not in the best interest of the YMCA, without a refund. Failure to observe this code may result in the termination of privileges. The loaning of your membership card will result in termination of membership privileges.
